LOCKERROOM QUOTES

Chicago Bears

Ditka:

(Penalties by the Bucs) "It was a big game for both teams. There might have been a little tightness by ~~both teams~~ them (Bucs) in the early going. Our defense played well.

(reference to the razzle dazzle plays) "You can do those kind of things when you have good field position. We had good field position so we tried them. Coach Hughes put those in for Jim.

(asked about Browner's tackle on the sidelines) "You don't want to do that to a guy. I don't think he knew where he was on the field.

(regards to McKinnon) "He didn't really think so. He didn't do anything to deserve retaliation."

(Bucs missing Hugh Green) "No telling how much they miss him. He is one of the best two linebackers in the game."

(condition of McMahon's hand) "He had a very good week practicing. We would say he is at about 85% right now."

Tampa Bay Buccaneers

Deberg:

"Defense did a good job of stopping our running game. I think our passing game is improving and we already have a good running game. When the two click we will be all right. We have to hit on all 8 cylinders. My performance has gotten better since becoming more familiar with my receivers. Its just frustrating not scoring the points we should be scoring. I have never given up and I hope noone on this team will. John McKay is calling the very best game that he thinks is possible and I am not one to question him. He knows this offense better than anyone."

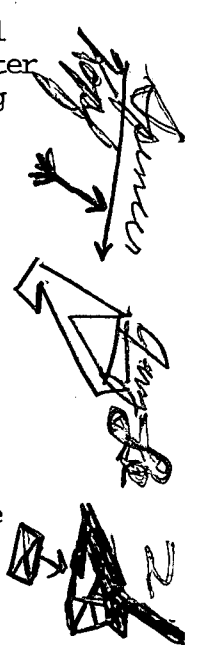

(preparation for Kansas City) "I'll be more motivated. We have to win. We've lost two in a row now and if we don't become more successfull we will have a very difficult season."

Carter:

"I don't think we ever gave up today."

(regards to breaking a Buc record) "Half and half, I feel like I could have made some plays that I didn't make. We felt like we were still in it at the half being behind 20-3.

(Penalties) "I guess we are over aggresive. Basically we take what the defense gives us. Chicago was shutting down the short game so we started hitting the intermediate to long stuff."

BUC INJURIES

JIMMIE GILES - will be hospitalized with a possible dislocated rib cartilage. He will undergo observation overnight.

KEVIN HOUSE - possible chip fracture in ribs

DANNY SPRADLIN - bruised calf

STEVE WILSON - aggravated knee injury

LEON BRIGHT - foot

NOTES: WALTER PAYTON was stopped in his quest to tie an NFL record seventh straight 100-yard rushing game. He has six 100-yard games out of eight with both sub-100-yard days coming against the Bucs.

JAMES WILDER still leads Payton in total yards from scrimmage. Wilder now has 1,076 while Payton has 1065. Payton's 42-yard pass does not count as total yards from scrimmage.

GERALD CARTER's ten receptions ties a Buc record for wide receivers. JAMES WILDER holds the team record with 11. CARTER's 109 yards is also a career high for him. It marks the first time he has had a 100-yard day.

44 points by Chicago represents the most ever scored against the Bucs in Tampa Stadium. The previous high was 42 by New Orleans on October 14, 1979. Green Bay scored 55 against the Bucs at Green Bay last season.

The 60,003 fans at Tampa Stadium today was the highest total since the opening day of 1983 vs. Detroit (9/4/83) when 62,154 fans attended.

OBED ARIRI's missed extra point was the first this season. He is now 17 of 18. The Buc record for consecutive extra points is 26.

BUC QUOTES:

KEITH BROWNER: (ON BEAR GAME PLAN): "We expected them to come out and run more than they did. But they mixed up the plays very well, they mixed the flea-flicker very well."

"They (officials) wouldn't let us play football today. 16 penalties is too many for one team in the first half."

JEREMIAH CASTILLE (OFFICIALS TIGHTNESS IN CALLS) "Calling it close? I don't think they called it close at all, the way the ratio went at the beginning of the game."

(ON FLEA FLICKER): (DID SOMEONE BLOW COVERAGE): "I don't know because everyone has a responsibility and I don't know whose responsibility McMahon was. He was just all alone."

JOHN HOLT "It was a situation where half the team was playing zone and the other half was playing man. Just another mental mistake by the defense." (ON FLEA FLICKER)

JAMES WILDER (TEAM'S ATTITUDE DIFFERENT THIS WEEK?) "I had the feeling the team was going to win (Tampa Bay) and it was going to be a physical game. It just didn't work out that way."

(HAVE YOU BEEN CARRYING OFFENSE) "That's not true. We have talent all around from receivers to other backs there is no one person on offense."
