NOTES

The Buccaneers are now 4-5-1 in overtime games, the last coming against Detroit here in Tampa Stadium on November 24, 1985 when the Bucs won 19-16. STEVE YOUNG was also the quarterback in that game and is now 1-1 as a starter in overtimes. Seven of the Bucs 10 overtime games have been played in Tampa Stadium.

STEVE YOUNG finished with 68 rushing yards on seven carries for his highest NFL single game rushing total. His previous high was 60 against Detroit 11/25/85. His 21-yard TD run today is his longest NFL rush. His 46-yard pass to Ron Springs today was his second longest in NFL play. His long is 59 to Kevin House against Indianapolis 12/15/85. His TD pass today was his first this year and it came to Calvin Magee, the same player who caught his first TD pass last year (7-yarder at Minnesota, 12/8/85). Young will donate 500 dollars to charity for the TD pass. In the first half today, Steve Young had 191 yards of total offense as compared to Atlanta's 190 in the first half.

DAVID LOGAN caused the 13th fumble of his career today, tying him for second on alltime Buc list with 13 (also Hugh Green). LEE ROY SELMON leads all Bucs with 28½. LOGAN started his 91st consecutive game today while KEVIN HOUSE started his 77th straight. ARTHUR COX's streak with Atlanta ended at 36 straight starts when he did not open today.

LEONARD HARRIS, a former Denver Gold player, had his first NFL reception today, a 9-yarder.

After the first two games this year, the Bucs were -8 in the turnover ratio. After four games, they are now -3 for a net of +5 in the last two games.

The Bucs scored 17 points in the second quarter today. The last time they did that was at Miami on Oct. 20, 1985. They also did it one week prior to that vs. L.A. Rams (10/13/85). The Buc record for most points in a quarter is 24 vs. Green Bay on 11/22/81.

The last three games played on Orange Sunday in Tampa Stadium have all been cliffhangers. Two years ago, the Bucs lost 35-31 to Minnesota and last year lost 31-27 to the Rams.

This is the second time this year a Mick Luckhurst field goal has beaten the Bucs. This preseason he kicked a 29-yarder late in the fourth quarter for a 20-17 Falcon win.

With two fumble recoveries last week and one today, IVORY SULLY has three in the last two games.

QUOTES

DAN HENNING

(LETDOWN AFTER DALLAS?) "I wasn't concerned about that. We had seen the films on Tampa Bay and they are getting better every week. They have come a long way since preseason. They played solid, kept the football, didn't make any mistakes and played good defense. We had some people get hurt towards the end of the half and we had to scramble just to get lined up. We had a second half shutout. We struggled the entire second half just to get even.

(STEVE YOUNG) "He can scare you to death. He has speed like a top running back. When he breaks out he's not going to get just eight or nine yards. He can go all the way."

(FOURTH DOWN SCRAMBLE BY ARCHER) "The play didn't work out and David (Archer) made it work."

(EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFF TEAMS YOU HAVE TO FACE?) "They develop the schedule based on some formula but it shouldn't be that way."

(LAST TWO WEEKS A CHARACTER BUILDER?) "They started building their character last year."
