Statement from NFL Official, Art McNally, on instant replay regarding the in interception call, "The referee was not shown the end zone shot that actually showed the ball on the ground and under these circumstances when the 90 second time was up. He announced play upheld. The replay booth buzzed him wanting to talk to him. The referee then came over and was shown that shot that showed it was an incomplete pass but since the 90 second time expired, there was no way to change the play at this point."

Addition to statement from Art McNally

Pool Report on Interception Call

"Fox Network informed me (Art McNally) that they did show all of the shots, including the endzone shot prior to the 90 second limit. In summary, TV did send the shot to the Replay Booth, but the referee was not given the opportunity to review it."
